MISREPRESENTED BY THE BERLIN PRESS PRENCH NEWSPAPERS FANNING A DANGEROUS FLAME-WAR MAY BE PRECIPITATED

-MORE LITERATURE ABOUT EMPEROR FREDERICK Copyright ; 1888 : By the New-York Associated Press

Berlin, Nov. 3 .- The "Reichsanzeiger" in its issue to-night states that the Emperor William's reply to the Berlin Municipal Committee, in spite of the ess of its meaning, has caus in a portion of the Berlin press, particularly in the free-thinking and the ultramontane organs. It ap-pears that these journals attempted after a preconerted plan to misrepresent the bearings of the The Emperor commands it be explicitly declared that it was the spirit and the matter of the free-thinking journals which wounded his feelings. He had concluded from the relations in which the Municipal Committee stand to this portion of the press that it was in a position to bring about a cessation of those statements which elicited IMPRUDENT FRENCH NEWSPAPERS. Apart from the elections and the popular attention necessarily evoked by the Emperor's visits to Leipsic, stuttgart, Munich and other places, much interest is evinced in the recent anti-German outpourings of the French and Italian press. While the people of Berlin treat these as perfectly comprehensible outbursts of French spicen, they do not for a moment regard them Yet it cannot be gainsaid that newspape polemics overstep the verge of discretion, more es-ocially in view of the strained situation between distoric enemies. Whatever the Powers may do to continuance of peace, their efforts are sadiy discounted by the systematic efforts of the French Nation and press to irritate public feeling. The Liberte." in the course of a two-column article, rakes up the Schnaebele incident, the Raon l'Etape shooting affray and the passport regulations, and bolsters the charge against the Germans of rank barbarism; thile the language employed toward Germany's ally, far exceeds the limits of legitimate controversy.

inevitable tendency of such an ill-judged pres crusade, at a time when the maintenance of peace is at the mercy of any chance incident, is evident to the Berlin people, who feel that if war is to be averted, it is necessary for the French press to adopt less blatant tactics. It was the press, primarily, which was responsible for the catastrophe of 1870. It is now adopting a similar course, and unless a stop is put to the systematic inflaming of the public mind, the same results may be expected to follow. The tone of the Parisian organs is all the more ill-judged because many Germans may visit the Paris Exhibition next year and unless the incitings of French public prints against Germany be abandoned, the heat of the public feelings may lead to incidents which will culminate in a "casus belli."

The Hawre incident was finally settled to-day. The escutcheon was replaced over the German Embassy in the prosence of the German Consul, the Chief Commissary of Police and the Sub-Prefect of the hepartment. The ceremony was quietly performed in the presence of about fifty spectators.

MOVEMENTS OF THE YOUNG KAISER.

The Emperor has signified a wish to remove with his family from Potsdam to Berliq by November 15, as the Marble Palace will become uncomfortable as the season advances, but it is uncertain whether the trans sive alterations in the old palace, which the Emperor has selected for his permanent Berlin home, are active progress, and it is doubtful if they will be co tive progress, and it is doubtful if they will be con-ted in time.

The Duke Karl Theodor of Bavaria, who bears the close reputation in medical science, and his wi-need to day with the Emperor, who, owing to the resume of social and state business, did not after a court hunts yesterday and to-day.

The Emperor configurations visiting the courts The Emperor contemplates visiting the courts of the Duchies of Save Welmar, Save Meiningen and Saxe-Coburg Gotha between November 6 and 8.

A pamphlet entitled "The Emperor Frederick at les" has been published at Leipsic. The work has been greatly puffed in Berlin, and its evident alm is to counteract and correct some of the contents of nperor Frederick's diary. It also revives the anti-Fuglish feeling which prevailed in the Prussian camp during the Franco-German War. It appears, though brought into considerable notoriety by means of advertising, to consist principally of extracts from newspapers and other publications not likely to exercise a lasting influence upon the public.

LECTURES FOR YOUNG MEN. The winter course of lectures under the austices of the Young Men's Christian Association has just been arranged to the satisfaction of the Lecture Committee and the many friends of the association. There will be five lectures, each one beginning at 8 o'clock, and before each one there will be a fifteen-minute organ recital by Charles Bigelow Ford. The speakers, subjects and dates of the lectures are: November 23 Robert J. Burdette in his new lecture; November 30, the Rev. Dr. T. DeWitt Talmage on "Big Blunders"; December 7, the eminent English Liberal, Dr. W. H. Aubrey, on "Gladstone"; December 14, Senator G. Horr, of Michigan, on "The Genuine Versus R. G. Horr, of Michigan, on The Galactic transfer of Shams"; December 21, George R. Wendling, for the fifth time, on "Popular Delusions." All seats in the house will be reserved, and the sale of tickets will begin on Friday, at the Association rooms at Twenty-third-st. and Fourth-ave.

A meeting of anxious editors, reporters, etc., of "The Star," who were in great doubt about their back pay, which had not been paid, was held on Friday in the office of "The Star," as stated in yesterday's Tribune. The result was a committee consisting of City Editor Donohoe and Managing Editor Sanderson, who waited upon Mr. Andrews, the Excise Commissioner, who is known as the Editor of "The Star," to get some information about their pay. Mr. Andrews talked sweetly and promised a substantial payment before 1 o'clock yesterday. This was deemed satisfactory. Yesterday afternoon, sure enough, there was some cash produced, and all arrearages up to one week of yesterday were pad. Subsequently it was resolved to send another delegation to Mr. Andrews, saying that a payment on the last week's salades would be highly acceptable. This was done, and Mr. Andrews in response united the pursestrings again, and distributed $200 among the force.

REPUBLICANS UNITED IN VIRGINIA.

ANTI-MAHONE MEN DECLARE THAT ALL STATE QUESTIONS ARE IN ABEYANCE. Richmond, Va., Nov. 3 (Special).-The following

circular was issued to-day from this city. It was approved by Colonel J. D. Brady, member of the National Republican Committee: "The Executive Committee of the Republican party of Virginia, assembled at Richmond, Virginia, November 1, 1888, has resolved to issue this address congratulating you upon the bright prospects of the Republican party of Virginia, calling your attention to the fact that for the first time in its history all the elements of the party in this State are working for our common cause, counseling a continuance of the spirit of forbearance and solf-sacrifice which ha rendered it possible to carry Virginia for the Republican candidates in the present campaign. We remind you that at this time there is but one Republican electoral ticket in the field, that the representatives of our organization are all withdrawn, and that our followers are earnestly and unselfishly bending their whole energies to the support and election of Harrison and Morton. At first the disposition of some of our friends was to criticise us for what they called the surrender of their rights, but we were then convinced that those in opposition to our organization were in no spirit of compromise, that they lessly determined upon a policy of rule or ruin and that the only chance of Republican unity was by our yielding to them in this contest, and leaving ther State and its representation in Congress in local broils and dissensions. The united strength of our party in Virginia to-day, giving assurance of securing the eleoral vote of this State for Harrison and Morton, arises chiefly from the course which your committee has pursued in counselling the sacrifices above-mentioned. and from the sensible, zealous adoption of their advice by the Republican masses.

The election is now close upon us. Upon its re sults depend so much that is vital to the interests of all the people of our Commonwealth that it is un-necessary to dwell upon that theme. Republican success in Virginia is our success, and represents the fruits of our forbearance and love of party. counsel and urge every Republican in this State to for-get until after the Presidential election all local differences or jealousies, and to unite with their Repub lican brethren in seeing that not a vote for Harrison and Morton is lost in this State by indifference, jeal ousy or the bad feeling which has been engendered between Republicans by causes which we need not In this National election these matters should be laid aside and forgotten. Our people may be assured that the time for the redress of these griev-be assured that the time for the redress of these grievances is near at hand, when they may be remedied and a recurrence prevented without doing injury to our friends beyond the limits of the State.

It is a source of deep regret to us that the discord between rival Republican candidates for Congress in the Petersburg District mars the general harmony of our party throughout the state. As we had no share in originating that unfortunate controversy, we are equally powerless to put it at rest, since the two contestants have never affiliated with our organization. We feel confident of victory.

BUSINESS SUSPENDED IN CHICAGO. REPUBLICANS TURNING OUT BY THOUSANDS TO SREET PRIVATE JOE FIFER

Chicago, Nov. 3 (Special).-There was alm total suspension of business in Chicago this afternoon. Every one turned out to see or to take part in the Republican parade. The procession was the largest political procession that has ever been seen here. There were nearly ninety clubs in the line in addition to all the delegations from business houses. Union Veteran Club had the place of honor at the head of the column. Next came the Tippecanoe Club. The old boys were a folly collection and their en thusiasm was as intense and was expressed quite as heartily as it was forty years ago. The second brigade was led by the Commercial Club and included everal hundred men from J. V. Farwell & Co.'s store with Senator Farwell walking at the head of the by the crowd who recognized him. "The Union," the Democratic organ, published a list of 150 supposed veterans who pledged themselves to vote for Cleveland. The names of many of them are forgeries, given names have been changed, wrong regiments cited, and the whole is pronounced by "The Journal" to-night a lie out of whole cloth. To-day all soldiers who are farmers rode miles to deny that their names were authorized.

THE ARCTIC WHALING FLEET SAFA San Francisco, Nov. 3.-The steam whaler Brasner

arrived from the Arctic Ocean yesterday afternoon and brought information that the thirteen whalers, with their crews of about 500 men, which were caught in the ice pack in September are safe. The Brasher is one of the vessels that started on a relief ex pedition as soon as the news of distress of the other whalers was brought to Ounalaska. She could not get near the endangered vessels on account of the ice, but on October 2, after the vessels had been imprisoned nine days, a gale sprang up and the ice began to break. The whaling captains took the first opportunity to release their vessels and in a day or two all were safely out of the ice.

Guests stopping a: the Oriental Hotel, Broadway and Thirty-ninth-st., have recently been robbed of powerry and money. Not a day has passed since October 20 without and meany as some of the guests complaining to the clerk that they had been robbed. Detective Sergeants Evanhoe and Vallely were assigned to make an investigation, and traced the thefts to John A. Holl, eighteen years old, of No. 103 West Fourteenth-st., one of the bell boys of the hotel. The detectives secured Hall's keys for his room and trunk, and found a considerable quantity of jewelry which had been stolen, secreted in the bottom of his trunk. The property consisted of a diamond scarf pin, gold chains, opera glasses, gold spectacles, rings and slik handkerchiefs, valued altogether at about $500. Some of the guests who were robbed are Joseph Cantor, W. H. Merrill, W. W. McDonald and Mrs. A. Alton. Mr. Cantor made a complaint against Hall at Jefferson Market Court yesterday and Justice Ford committed him for trial.

LAST DAY AT IVY CITY.

NO EXTRA MEETING AT THE COURSE.

WAHSATCH, BELLA B., REPORTER, SWIFT AND LAFITTE YESTERDAY'S WINNERS.

(BY TRLEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE)
Washington, Nov. 3.—As foreshadowed in The Trib this morning there will be no extra meeting at Ivy City. The Executive Committee of the Jockey Club arrived at this extremely wise decision this morning and a special train started for New-York this after noon with several hundred visiting turfmen and all the bookmakers on board. The regular meeting closed with a brilliant programme, which was run off in the presence of more than 4,000 persons. Two of the finishes were close and exciting and the others were full of interest. Three favorites, all bravely backed got home in front. The club has had more than one narrow escape from scandal, and honest turimen are glad that disreputable owners and trainers will no be given another opportunity to plunder the public in the interest of themselves and the ring.

The performances of Swift, Telie Doe and Frank Ward have caused much talk, and great was the amazeent of the spectators to-day when they heard John R. Kelly invite the owner of those unconcionable and erratic brutes into the judges' stand; and their amaze nent grew when they saw W. B. Jennings seated there for the purpose of placing the second horse. It is well, indeed, that there is to be no extra meeting Holiday is of no earthly account. He more than justified the confidence of his backers by mowing down the entire field and winning by a short Swift romped off with the fourth race, and Lafitte, who has missed fire on several occasions took the last race after a sharp brush with Drake an Bellwood. On the whole, the meeting has been suc essful, to say which is simply an acknowledgment of ecretary McIntyre's thorough fitness for the responsible office he fills. Before another year there will be new track near Washington, and a meeting of four teen days instead of eight. Details of the races are given in the summarles:

A LIVELY TUSSLE AT FOOTBALL THE CRESCENTS DEFEATS THE NEW-YORK ATHLETIC CLUB TEAM 30 TO 0.

ple passing the Polo Grounds yesterday noon might have thought that a green diamond battle vas in progress, except that the yells piercing the air were of a more blood-curdling order than generally issues from the throats of followers of baseball. The occasion was a football match between the Crescent and New-York Athletic Club teams and it was for Modern football without blood is considered a tame affair. There were no serious accidents, however, the Crescents adding another victory to their already bountiful list by the score of 30 to 0.

The twenty-two determined athletes, their muscles sticking out like whipcord under their tight-fitting uniforms, took their positions on the field shortly after 4 o'clock. The rain had stopped and the sun made an effort to peep over the distant Jersey hills. A cold northwesterly wind swept over the grounds and the players' teeth chattered until the game was well under way. The men went to work with an energy born of love for the sport and were immediately bathed in perspiration, and all but the spectators forgot the cold.

The game was a fierce struggle, a twisting of sinewy arms and legs, and the wrenches given some of the men seemed enough to tear their limbs asunder. Given a little leather ball as the objective point and a score of sturdy young men, kicking, pushing, claw-ing, stamping and fighting to get at it like mad, and one has a fair idea of a modern football game. The most frequent feature of the game was the sight of three-fourths of the players piled in a heap in the centre of the field. A player would occasionally be stretched out stark and still, but a handful of the wet grass rubbed over his face always sent him into thick of the fray again.

The Crescent men showed better team work than their opposer - and did not allow them to make a point. Smith later a pretty run, made a touch down and Edward healed a goal for the Crescents in just sixteen minutes. A. Lamarche got the second touchdown and Edwards the goal in eight minutes. Smith got the third touch-down and Edwards the goal in minutes. Smith got the third touch-down and Edwards the goal in minutes. five minutes. In the second half Edwards got the touch-down and also kicked a goal in twenty minutes Sheldon got the final touch-down and Edwards the ast ball through the poles, making the Cre thirty points to nothing for the New-York Athletic men. The playing was fast and furious toward the close and the players frequently lost their tempers. Then fists and heads would come together with great orce. Coster and Sheldon had a short bout at fisti cuffs and both may have black eyes this morning. The combatants were separated just as it looked as if all the players and many of the spectators would

BIG KICKING BY COLLEGE BOYS. YALE WHITE WASHES THE UNIVERSITY OF PENN-SYLVANIA TEAM

New-Haven, Nov. 3.—Yale opened the football cham-pionship series to-day by defeating the University of Pennsylvania eleven 58 points to 0, scoring five goals, six touchdowns and forcing the Quakers to touch wice for safety. Pennsylvania's weakest point was the rush line, which Yale broke through almost at will, invariably "downing" the Pennsylvania half-backs before they could either kick or run with the ball. At no time was the Yale Goal in danger. Yale scored her first touchdown in six minutes' play, and scored or an average every seven minutes. The features of the game were the running and dodging of Mc-Clurg, Newell and Wurtemburg, and the tackling of Wallace, Stagg and Heffelfinger. For Pennsylvania, McCance and Hulme made several good runs and Wagenhurst and Gray did some lively blocking. Yale used her half-backs little, depending upon the rushers to do the work. At times the game was rough and considerable bad feeling was shown. Price and Mc Cance were handled so roughly that they retired disabled, and Meirs, centre rush for Pennsylvania, was disqualified for slugging Corbin. There were a number of side scrummages which the referee failed

THEY WANT LESS INVESTIGATION.

THE JERSEY CITY POLICE BOARD PUTS ITS PRESI DENT IN CHARGE OF THE FORCE IN-STEAD OF CHIEF MURPHY.

The Board of Police Commissioners of Jersey City seld a special meeting yesterday, and backed up its blockade of the investigation of registration frauds by taking nearly all the executive power out of the hands of Chief of Police Murphy, and conferring it upon President James N. Davis, a bitter Democratic partisan. Chief Murphy gave unpardonable offence to the Democratic Board by attempting to make a thorough investigation of the registry, and it ordered him a few days ago to call off the detectives and police. This order was supplemented at the special meeting yesterday by the adoption of the following preamble and resolutions:

meeting yesterday by the adoption of the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas. The Police Departments should be above and beyond partisan politics; and.

Whereas, It was intended by the State Legislature that the law known as tenure of olice act should so lift the Police Department above the viciositudes of party politics and that it shot a be used only to maintain peace and good order in the community with all that that implies; and

Whereas, Complaints have been made to this Board that the present Chief of Police has used and is using the Department for party politics under the guise of trying to purify the registry, sending the officers to investigate Democratic precincs and

Whereas, The Department has been used heretofore at many elections for party purposes instead of remaining neutral between the parties, and

Whereas, The Board desires to see an honest election unblassed by any interference whatever from the Police Department, and it is the desire of this Board that the Department shall be used for the preservation of peace and order before and during the progress of the approaching election, guaranteeing to all citizens protection in their right to vote, but visiting upon every attempt at illegal voting the prompt arrest of such offenders against the law and the sacred right of the election franchise; and

Whereas. The Chief has admitted to this Board that he has been induced to make use of the Department for one of the political parties; therefore, be it

Resolved, That no detail of any officers or men in the Department shall be made by the Chief or Captains for any purpose whatever till the further orders of this Board.

Resolved, That all such details shall be made by tains for any purpose whatever till the further orders of this Board.

Resolved. That all such details shall be made by the president of the Board of Police Commissioners only till, the further orders of this board.

Resolved. That the president of this board shall have the power, till further orders, to instruct the Chief of Police or any Captain or other officer or any patrolman in the discharge of his or their duties, and that the instructions and orders so given shall be considered the orders of this board.

Chief Murphy said yesterday that he had nothing to say about the case, as the rules of the department forbade criticism by subordinates of the acts of their superiors. In regard to the statement that he had superiors. In regard to the statement that he had used the department in the interest of any particular party, he said: "If Counsellor Potts represents the blican party I admit that I had registry cases which he brought to my attention, investigated for the Republicans, but at the same time I had cases inrestigated which were brought to my attention by the Democratic State Committee and by other citizen Under the present regulations President Davis will make all the details of policemen to the polling places on Election Day and he will see to it that Democratic interests are fully protected. The action of the Police Board in these two instances was prompted by the Democratic managers and is a most positive evidence that the managers have decided that desperate cases require desperate remedles.

MANY FRAUDULENT REGISTRATIONS. Immediately after the charter election in Newark a number of Republican citizens, acting upon informaion that the Democratic County and City Committee were arranging for wholesale colonization of voters register for next Tuesday's election, quietly organted themselves into a bureau for the detection and punishment of violators of the election laws. Pos-itive evidence has been obtained that a large number of persons have obtained naturalization papers by false oaths and that in many cases they were assisted by men who knew they were not entitled to vote. Two hundred cases of false registration have been selected to make complaints upon. Chief of Police Hopper said Saturday that most of the false registration was done in the First, Second, Fourth and Seventh Wards. All these wards, except the first, are Demo Yesterday Patrick Kennedy, Patrick McCar cratic. dia, of No. 192 High-st., and George F. Winans, of East Orange, were arrested for false registration and committed to Jall.

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

NO EFFORT TO STOP FRAUDS

DEMOCRATS OPPOSE ALL PLANS FOR HONEST VOTING IN INDIANA

COUNTER STATEMENTS BY THE CHAIRMAN OF THE TWO STATE COMMITTEES-A PRACTI-CAL WARNING TO THE FRIENDS OF A PURE ELECTION.

Indianapolis, Nov. 3.-Chairman Huston, of the Republican State Committee, on Friday, having heard that plans were on foot to stuff the ballot boxes with couble ballots, requested Chairman Jeweit, of the Democratic Committee, to join him in advising that rubber band be placed around each ballot as voted. fr. Jewett, after some hesitating correspondence eclined to take any action. One of his excuses was hat the bands could not be obtained. Chairman Huston immediately replied that W. P. Burford, of his city, agreed to furnish all the bands necessary. Caught in his own trap, Mr. Jewett refused to make any further reply. Then Chairman Huston made the ing the agreement. Said he:
We learned from a man who had been taken into the

scheme by the Democrats that double voting was to resorted to by them all over the State. This man was taken into a room where he and several other men from different counties were instructed in the art of voting double tickets. They were told to fold and iron smooth number of ballots the night before the election. or more of these ballots smoothed in that way were then to be slipped into the folds of the lawful ballot, and this ballot was to be held with the finger on the side of th ballot opposite the outward fold, so that no one could see that there were other ballots inside the lawful ballot. The Democratic inspector was to be instructed to seize the ballot between his fingers in the same way and deposit in the box quickly. Once inside the box, the lawful ballot would spring open and the sparious ballots would drop out of its folds, especially when the box was shaken, or the ballots stirred by the hand of the inspector in convicing. The informant discusse the name of the man counting. The informant discloses the name of the man it known to the public. I regret to say that he is Indiana man and holds his head pretty high. Th men were also instructed to have these tickets voted by the electors who might be bought on election day by the Democrats, but afterward this part of the scheme was might watch the voters too closely to permit the cessful operation of the plan, and so the parties receiving instructions were told to get the better class of Demo to cast these ballots, for they would not likely be was so closely by the Republicans. These instructions have been given to parties all through the State, and in order to encourage them they were told that the same plan was to be operated in New-York. I have accordingly advised our friends in New-York to be on their guard."

Mr. Jewett in reply wrote the following statement: There are many reasons why such an arrangement uld not be made, and one very good one why it would be entirely futile. First—The agreement would be capable of fulfilment for the reason that it would be possible to get the bands, distribute them and have the fact that they were to be used thoroughly understood at any distinguishing mark on a ballet, and these bands might be construed as distinguishing marks, especially if of different sizes or variously placed upon the ticket. Nor could any voter or inspector be compelled to ob-Third-It would be an innovation for the uch a practice has never been pursued, so far as I know, in this State.

Fourth-The right given the inspector to manipulat the balint while nutting on the band would give opportunity for fraudulently changing the ballot or inserting an additional ticket in each one, and thereby preventing the counting of either ticket. Fifth-The agreement could not authorize an election board to reject a legal ballot found in the box without a persons who are strangers in the communities where have been seen have been travelling over the State having no known business, but who have visited Republi election inspectors and no one else. We entertain a real apprehension that they have been instructing such as are corrupt enough to engage in such work how to substitute tickets, stuff the boxes and commit other ballotbox deviltry.

The statement made by Mr. Huston as to froning

tickets, voting tickets double and all that sort of thing, is in slang phrase a "chestnut." It is merely a rehash of a circular often issued by the Republican party in former years and once called the "pink circular." In this circular these matters were set forth with great particularity, and it was always in these circulars charged by Republicans that the Democrats intended to resort to them. On the other hand, Democrats and the better ments as merely intended to instruct Republicans how to commit these crimes and an implied request to go ahead and commit them. Any statement that the Democratic organization of this State has any knowledge of, or cohnivance with any fraudulent practices or intended wrog in connection with the election is enirely false and I

TO CARRY CHEMUNG BY BRIBERY. HILL'S WORKERS RAISING A BIG CAMPAIGN

Elmira, Nov. 3 (Special).-The second assessment has been made on the saloonkeepers of this city to aid in the re-election of Governor Hill and Assemblyman Rush, and the work of collecting is now actively in progress. This evening a committee called on West Water-st, saloonkeeper and demanded $50 for the corruption fund. At this rate of assessment it in Chemung County it is expected to raise about $15,000, which, added to the first assessment, will make a round sum of upward of $25,000 to be used to buy up the floating vote of the country. The total numher of votes in the county is about 10,000, or one voter for every $2 50.

There now seems to be no question about the Hill gang's intention of buying up the county. collected this afternoon to be used for Mr. Bush's special benefit.

As a means to offset this "boodle" business, a mass meeting under the auspices of the Anti-Bribery Association was held at the Opera House last even-ing. Detectives are at work, however, and many arrests will undoubtedly be made between now and rrests will un ruesday night.

SENATOR INGALLS IN INDIANA.

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 3 (Special).—This city saw o-day a political demonstration unequalled in its istory. Preparations for the demonstration had been arranged upon an elaborate scale and the whole sur rounding country had been asked to assist in the affair. Every town and city sent its delegates of the different campaign organizations, giée clubs, flam-beau corps, umbrella brigades, old soldiers and others, as well as the various township delegations who came in wagons or cavalry companies. Men and women continued to pour in all day. J. Ingails and William Windom addressed the im-mense audience at Glen Miller Park this afternoon, both making telling speeches. The Campaign Com-mittee had exhausted their supply of torches before evening, and telegrams were sent to surrounding towns to send in whatever supplies they might have on hand. The procession was three miles long. The feature of the procession was the industrial parade. Two hundred business men of this city took part. This closes the campaign in this part of Indiana.

ROUNDING UP THE CANVASS IN ELMIRA. Elmira, N. Y., Nov. 3 (Special)-The final demonstration of the Republicans of this county was a grand parade and mammoth meeting at the Opera this evening. The parade was shared by delegations from Binghamton, Waverly, Corning, Horseheads, Owego, Troy, Penn., and every town and hamlet in Chemung County. Judge G. L. Smith, former law partner of Governor Hill, presided. The first speaker was Colonel Victor E. Piolett, of Brad-ford County, Penn. Mr. Piolett has been a Demperat fifty-seven years. General Hastings, of Pennsylvania, was the next speaker. General Alexander s. Diven also made a good address. Two everflow meetings were organized in the street, at one of which Editor E. L. Adams presided. Mr. Adams opened the meeting with a speech and was followed by Judge williams, of Towanda, Penn. Justice Daniel O'Connell, of this city, and others spoke at the other outdoor receivers. neetings.

County Auditor Daniel Lake, one of the most prominent Democrats in Brooklyn, has joined himself to the Independent Democrats of Kings County in opposition to Governor Hill. He sent his resignation yesterday to the Democratic General Committee, and also to the Eighth Ward Democratic Association. In his letter to

"I leave the association that no man can say I am sailing under colors I am not loyal to. I have de ided, after calm deliberation, to vote and work against the re-election of Governor David B. Hill, and shall also oppose the candidacy of John B. Longley, Demoratic candidate for Assembly." His action will have a powerful influence upon the vote of the Eighth Ward, one of the Democratic strong-holds. Mr. Lake will work against Hill with John Y. McKane, beside whom he formerly sat in the Board of Supervisors. PREFERENCES OF LEHIGH STUDENTS.

Bethlehem, Penn., Nov. 3.—An election was re-cently held at Lehigh University at which 320 votes were cast. Of these, Harrison received 193, Cleve land 125, and Pisk 2.

REGISTRATION IN ALBANY AND BUFFALO. Albany, Nov. 3.-The registration in this city closed at 9 o'clock last night, with a total registration of 28,000. Yesterday, on affidavits prepared by a Citizens' Committee a total of 2,339 names were removed from the lists, including those of voters who have died or removed. About 1,000 names are still on the lists, which will be removed by action of the courts. This may reduce the total registration to a trifle below 28,000, yet it will still exceed that of 1887 by over 1,500, and that of 1884 by 3,300.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 3 - The total registration in Buffalo his year is 54,004, which shows an increase over that of 1884 of 10,502.

THE REPUBLICAN ESTIMATE ON OHIO. Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 3 (Special).—Chairman Cap-peller has made an estimate for the Republicans on the vote in this State. It is based on a careful poll just completed. The total vote is placed at 796,000; Republican vote 409,000, Democratic 371,000, Pro-hibition 160,000. Republican plurality—38,000. Blaine's plurality in 1884 was 32,862.

JORDAN L. MOTT WOULD NOT ARBITRATE Acting on the instructions of the Central Laboration, the Arbitration Committee of the Metal Section called on Jordan L. Mott to effect a settlement, if possible, it having been charged that he employed non-union men at low wages in his big iron foundries. Yesterday at his city office, at William and Beekman sts., his repre-sentative informed the committee that Mr. Mots intended to run his own factory in his own way, and distinctly refused to arbitrate. Mr. Mott is an elector on the National Democratic ticket.

CLEVELAND LOSING THE IRISH VOTE.

AND DOESN'T KNOW IT. From The New-York Herald (Dem.) Regular Washington Correspondence, Oct. 30.

The following is the substance of a telegram ros ceived this morning by a member of the Cabinet Committee in New-York:

"Washington telegrams in to-day's papers are most disappointing about the Sackville matter. Does the President know that the Irish vote is slipping out of our hands because of diplomatic shilly-shallying? See L-- at once. Something ought to be done to-day."

BUT THEN HE NEVER WANTED IT.

AND USED TO BOAST THAT HE NEVER WOULD VOTE FOR AN IRISH ROMAN CATHOLIC. (Affidavit of a Reputable Democratic Lawver of Buffala.)

State of New-York, County of Erie, } ss. : rawin C. Robbins, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That he resides in the City of Buffalo aforesaid, and has resided in said city ever since January, 1856, and that he has been personally acquainted with Grover Cleveland, now President of the United States, for twenty years and upward, and has always been a member of the Democratic

That at the Democratic City Convention held in the City of Buffalo in the autumn of 1881, the first nomination that was made was that of John C. Sheehan for the office of Controller of said city. That prior to such convention the name of said Grover Cleveland was the principal one mentioned for the office of Mayor of said city, and he had agreed to accept the nomination; but on the day of such convention and immediately after such nomination of said John C. Sheehan, as aforesaid, said Cleveland refused to accept such nomination for Mayor, he, then and there, saying in deponent's presence, with an oath, THAT HE WOULD NOT GO ON THE TICKET WITH THAT IRISHMAN, meaning said John C. Sheehan.

And deponent further says that said Cleveland then and there agreed to accept such nomination only upon condition that said Sheehan should withdraw from the ticket and from the nomination of Controller, and he, said Sheehan, was induced so to withdraw, in order that said Cleveland might be nominated and accept such nomination. And deponent further says that on several oc-

ROBBINS REAFFIRMS HIS STATEMENT. CIRCUMSTANTIAL ACCOUNT OF WHAT MR. CLEVELAND NOW FINDS IT USEFUL TO DENY.

Buffalo, Nov. 3 (Special).-Lawyer E. C. Robbins

President Cleveland's old chum, whose affidavit to the effect that the President said he would vote for no Irishman was denied by Cleveland yesferday, was seen to-day. He told the story of Mr. Cleve and's disagreement with John C. Shechan, now secretary of the New-York Aqueduct Board. Mr. Hobbins said: "The remark about Sheehan was made to me at the corner of Eagle and Main sts., on the day of the convention. Sheekan had pretended not to be a candidate till he had the convention, and then had the nomination for Controller sprung first and was nominated by acclamation. Cleveland was trying a case in the City Hall, and came over Eagle-st. I met him at the corner of Main. When I told him what had been done, he exclaimed, flinging out his arm: " I'll be --- If I'll run on the ticket with tha Irishman. I won't take a nomination under any "I was a candidate for City Attorney, and had the delegates. When Cleveland said that I said: Well, then, I'm out of it,' and I went right to the delegates and withdrew. Giles Stillwell took the nomination and was elected. The convention took a recess after nominating for Mayor, heating that Cleveland had balked, and there was talk of nominating Mr. Patridge. Finally John Sheehan mounted the platform and withdrew, and then Clevela accepted the nomination." Mr. Robbins publishes the following letter to-day:

Mr. Cleveland, in his telegram to Mr. Bissell, read with so much bluster at the Pairchild meeting last evening, de-nics that he ever said he would not run on the city ticket with John C. Sheehan. If that be twue, then why did he not run with him! Mr. Sheehan received the nomination for Controller, and it is well known to all who were in any degree conversant with Democratic polities that fall that he was compelled to withdraw before Mr. Cleveland would accept the nomination for Mayor. It is very convenient for him now to deny it, when he is seeking the Irish-American States to pronounce that a lie which was a truthful history at that time, and known to be so by every one. But circumstances in his view may after cases. E. C. ROBRINS.

THE PRESIDENT DENIES THE AFFIDAVIT. HE DECLARES THERE IS NO TRUTH IN MR. ROBBINS'S STATEMENT.

A message from President Cleveland was read at a political meeting in Music Hall, Buffalo, on Friday of E. C. Robbins, a prominent lawyer of Buffale, published in The Tribune on Friday morning, to the effect that the President had said that he never would vote for an Irishman. The telegram was addressed to Mr. Cleveland's old law pastner, and was as follows:

Cleveland's old law pattner, and was as follows:

Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C.

To Wilson S. Bissell.

I am much surprised that at this late day any person in Buffale should make the accusation you quote, or that any newspaper published there should give currency to such a lio, which was prumpily denied when first stated some years ago, and the utter absurdity of which was proven by the support of my Irish friends in the canvass then pending. I emphatically deny the allegation contained in the affidavity you mention, because these charges are circulated at my home, and because I cannot forbear expressing my amazement that such reckless audaeity should be added to the basest ingratitude.
